BEST DOCTORAL THESIS IN CANADIAN STUDIES

Ottawa, May 5th, 2011 – The International Council for Canadian Studies (ICCS) is pleased to announce that the Best Doctoral Thesis in Canadian Studies Award, attributed each year to the author of a remarkable doctoral thesis on Canada, will be awarded on May 28th, 2011, to Mr. Carlos Alberto Tello-Campos (Mexico).

The award is bestowed to Mr. Tello for his thesis Urban Revitalization and Quality of Life in Inner City Montreal and Mexico, which is a comparative conceptual and statistical/mathematical analysis on Canadian and Mexican studies in Urban Geography.

Mr. Tello holds a PhD in Philosophy (Urban Geography) from the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México and has more than 30 years experience in urban development, together with research and teaching. He is also an active member of the Asociación Mexicana de Estudios sobre Canadá (AMEC) and is involved in the expansion of Canadian Studies with his numerous publications and lectures, which are notably about the urbanism of Montreal City.

About the ICCS
The International Council for Canadian Studies is a federation of 21 national and multinational Canadian Studies associations and four associate members in 39 countries. ICCS' mandate is to promote worldwide research, teaching and publications on the study of Canada.
