

INTERUNIVERSITY SEMINAR ON CANADIAN STUDIES
IN LATIN AMERICA
(SEMINECAL)

The Universidad Autónoma Metropolitana of Mexico and the Universidad de La Habana, are organizing, with the support of the Canadian Government, the 10th Interuniversity Seminar On Canadian Studies in Latin America.

This upcoming 10th Seminar for Masters and Doctoral students will be held on April 12th and 13th, 2012 at the University of Habana, Cuba.

The seminar will be organized on discussion panels in the areas of social sciences and humanities. This call is open to all Latin American Masters and Doctoral students whose research theses focuses on Canada or comparative studies with significant Canadian content.

Those interested in participating must send two-page abstract that outlines the topic of research and its most relevant contributions, an abbreviated version of his/her curriculum vitae and a letter from his/her thesis advisor. The selection will be based on the summaries received. Paper proposals are accepted in English, French and Spanish for a 20-minute long paper presentation (8-9 double spaced pages). The final version of the papers must be send before March 20th.

Deadline for submission, CV and advisor thesis letter is 23rd December 2011. Accommodation, meals and part of transportation expenses will be provided by Seminecal.

For further information visit <http://www.seminecal.org>

Or contact

Delia Montero del@xanum.uam.mx

Raúl Rodríguez rodriguezr@uh.cu