

1) President / Président	Professor Jane Koustas
2) # of Canadian Studies Centres / # des Centres d'études canadiennes	21
3) # of Members / # des Membres	187
4) Web site / Site Web	www.csn-rec.ca
5) Activities (including dates) / Activités (avec dates)	1. The Annual General Meeting was held in conjunction with the Versions of Canada Conference Sept. 27, University of Prince Edward Island, Charlottetown, PEI 2. CSN/RÉC contacts and consults its members primarily through our listserv, twitter and website. Members receive regular updates on activities, publications, employment and funding opportunities and on international Canadian Studies events and news. Notre site web contient de plus en plus de textes dans les deux langues. Karli Whitmore continues to work as a part-time administrator and membership coordinator and has been very successful in increasing our membership. 3. Many Canadian Studies activities occur throughout Canada sponsored by Centres, programmes and individual members. Here are some examples: -Versions of Canada- Charlottetown , September 25-27, 2014; The Canadian Studies Programme, University of Prince Edward Island -The Cities We Need, La ville qu'il nous faut. McGill Institute for the Study of Canada, Feb. 19-20 -Two Days of Canada: Avant Canada, Brock University, Nov. 5-7, 2014. -Crossing Borders 2015: Canada-US Relations in a Changing North America. A multidisciplinary student conference on Canada, the United States and Borders Issues, Brock University, in partnership with the University at Buffalo, the SUNY, March 26-27 -"Discourse and Dynamics: Canadian and Quebec Women as Public Intellectuals" – a national conference. Mount Allison University 16-18 October 2014. 4. More information on activities at Canadian Studies centres can be found on their websites: -Mount Allison Centre for Canadian Studies: www.mta.ca/faculty/arts-letters/canadian_studies/index.html -Frost Centre for Canadian Studies and Indigenous Studies at Trent University: www.trentu.ca/frostcentre/ -Robarts Centre for Canadian Studies at York University: robarts.info.yorku.ca/ -UBC Centre for Canadian Studies: www.canadianstudies.ubc.ca -McGill Institute for the Study of Canada: www.mcgill.ca/misc
6) Publications	CSN members produce a wealth of publications related to Canada. This is only a selection. Les membres du RÉC-CSN ont publié les livres suivants. Ce n'est qu'une sélection : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Alcántara, Christopher. Negotiating the Deal: Comprehensive Land Claims Agreements in Canada. University of Toronto Press • Bonnett, John. Emergence and Empire: Innis, Complexity and the Trajectory of History. McGill-Queen's University Press • Ball, Eric. Archibald Lampman: Memory, Nature, Progress. McGill-Queen's University Press • Clément, Dominique. Equality Deferred: Sex Discrimination and British Columbia's Human Rights State, 1953-84. UBC Press • Eliadis, Pearl. Speaking Out on Human Rights: Debating Canada's Human Rights System. McGill-Queen's University Press • Gagnon, Alain-G. La politique québécoise et canadienne. Presses de l'Université du Québec . Wilfred Laurier University Press's TransCanada series

- Kennedy, Gregory. Something of a Peasant Paradise? Comparing Rural Societies in Acadie and the Loudunais, 1604-1755. McGill-Queen's University Press
- Macfarlane, Daniel. Negotiating a River: Canada, the US, and the Creation of the St. Lawrence Seaway. University of British Columbia Press
- Martel, Marcel. Canada the Good! A Short History of Vice Since 1500. Wilfrid Laurier University Press.
- Couture, Claude et Paul Multaris. La nation et son double. Les Presses de l'Université Laval
- Mosby, Ian. Food Will Win the War: The Politics, Culture and Science of Food during Canada's Second World War. University of British Columbia Press.
- Reichwiein, Pearl Ann. Climber's Paradise: Making Canada's Mountain Parks, 1906-1974. University of Alberta Press
- Verduyn, Christl and Smaro Kamboureli. Eds. Critical Collaborations: Indigeneity, Diaspora and Ecology in Canadian Literary Studies. Wilfrid Laurier University Press. (published 2014)

7) Grants awarded by the association. Awards & prizes received by members / Bourses offertes par l'association. Prix reçus par les membres de l'association

Canadian Studies Network Prize for the Best Undergraduate Essay: : Jaya Bordeleau-Cass - essay, "The War Between Oil and Water: an Analysis of Anti-shale Gas Resistance in Kent County, New Brunswick,"

Canadian Studies Network Prize for the Best MA or Equivalent Thesis or Major Research Paper in Canadian Studies: -: Caroline Grego - MA thesis, "Imagining a Community-Oriented 'National Park Nature: Conflict, Management, and Conservation in the Proposed South Okanagan-Lower Similkameen National Park Reserve"

Canadian Studies Network Prize for the Best PhD Dissertation in Canadian Studies 2014 : Philip Van Huizen, "Flooding the Border: Development, Politics, and Environmental Controversy in the Canadian-U.S. Skagit Valley." University of British Columbia (2013)

Canadian Network Prize for the Best Book in Canadian Studies 2014: "Negotiating a Deal: Comprehensive Land Claim Agreement in Canada (University of Toronto Press)

The ICCS Pierre Savard Award for the best book in Canadian Studies 2014: Christopher Alcantara Negotiating the Deal: Comprehensive Land Claim Agreements in Canada (Toronto: University of Toronto Press, 2013).

ICCS Graduate Student Scholarship: Ms. Roxana Akhbari. Currently a Ph D. student in the Department of Philosophy at the University of Alberta, Ms. Akhbari will pursue her research project "Islamophobia & Epistemologies of Ignorance" in collaboration with colleagues at OISE, the University of Toronto.

Ms. Kristjana Loptson, Currently a Ph D. student in the Department of Political Science at the University of Alberta, Ms. Loptson will pursue her research project "Housing Policy and Housing Insecurity in Canada" in collaboration with colleagues at the University of Toronto.

Canada Prize in the Social Sciences: Michael Asch
On Being Here to Stay: Treaties and Aboriginal Rights in Canada University of Toronto Press. Michael Asch is a professor of anthropology at the University of Victoria and a professor emeritus at the University of Alberta.
(<http://www.ideas-idees.ca/events/canada-prizes#winner>).

Kathryn Labelle, University of Saskatchewan Assistant Professor of History received the 2014 John C. Ewers Award for her book Dispersed but Not Destroyed: A History of the Seventeenth-Century Wendat People. Labelle previously won the CSN-RÉC prize for the best book in Canadian Studies for 2013.

Pierre Anctil is the winner of the Prix du Canada en sciences humaines 2014 for his publication: Jacob-Isaac Segal, 1896-1954 : Un poète yiddish de Montréal et son milieu. Presses de l'Université Laval

Claude Couture, Professor of Social Sciences and Canadian Studies, Campus Saint-Jean, University of Alberta since 1988, was awarded the Governor General's International Award for Canadian Studies May 31st during the ICCS held in Ottawa.

8) Research / Recherches

Les membres individuels poursuivent leurs propres activités de recherche dans tous les champs reliés aux études canadiennes. Among the many research areas covered by members of the association are the following: history; politics/policy; literature; museums; tourism; Indigenous peoples; visual culture/art; drama; health; religion; environment; immigration and multiculturalism; media/communications

The CSN was pleased to offer a travel grant to Karen Everett who is in her 3rd year of the Canadian Studies PhD program at Trent University (expected completion date: May 2017). She will present a paper entitled "National Security Policies and the Consequences of Yukon Exports" which explores the Alaska-Yukon Border at the Calotte Academy. The theme this year is 'Resources and Security in the Globalized Arctic'. Karen Everett will discuss the Canadian North in the context of the circumpolar North and international scholarship.

9) What has been cut from your association activities since 2012/ Quelles activités ont été coupées depuis 2012?

10) Up-coming activities & events / Activités & événements à venir

Our Annual General Meeting will be held in Oct. in conjunction with the McGill Institute for the Study of Canada conference Canada in the Americas on October 2 and 3 at McGill University in Montreal, Quebec
<https://www.mcgill.ca/misc/>